

Session 2: Cross-continental Connections

What is the nature of human nonhuman relationships in the making of global landscapes? Looking at spatial configurations of natural resource commodity chains and non-indigenous spices across continents, session 2 examines the dynamics of regional interconnections of nature as history and process.