

Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University and The Asian Research Center for Migration, Chulalongkorn University

Coorganize a Seminar on

“Informal Human Flows between Thailand and Its Neighbors”

Venue: Meeting Room (AA447), Research Building No.2, Kyoto University

January 18-19, 2010

Jan.18

Chair: Dr. Satoru Kobayashi (CSEAS, Kyoto University)

14:00 Opening Remark

Dr. Tatsuki Kataoka, (ASAFAS, Kyoto University)

14:30 Life Histories and Narratives of Thai Returnees from Japan: The Case of Northern Thailand

Ms. Tomoko Matsui (Ryukoku University)

15:10 Break

15:30 Thai Female Migration to Japan: Flows and Cosequences

Ms. Pataya Ruenkaew (Thai Women Articulate Their Rights Abroad Association)

16:10 Human Trafficking in Thailand

Ms. Aungkana Kamonpetch (Chulalongkorn University)

16:50 The challenge of education policy for Migrant Children in Thailand from security standpoints

Ms. Premjai Vungsiripaisal (Chulalongkorn University)

18:00 Reception

Jan.19

Chair: Dr. Satoru Kobayashi (CSEAS, Kyoto University)

10:30 The Roles of Thai Labor Solidarity Committee on the Movement for Migrant Worker Protection in Thailand

Ms. Tassanee Surawanna (Raks Thai Foundation)

11:10 Border Crossing and Labor Migration of the Lahu Hilltribe ’

Dr. Tatsuki Kataoka (ASAFAS, Kyoto University)

- 11:50 Lunch Break
- 13:00 Mae Sot and Bangkok: Human Flows and Dynamics of a Border Social System
Dr. Sangkook Lee (Sogang University)
- 13:40 Break
- 14:00-15:30 Discussion
Discussants: Dr. Supang Chantavanich (ARCM, Institute of Asian Studies, Chulalongkorn University) and Dr. Yoko Hayami (CSEAS, Kyoto University)